The meeting was called to order by Sheriff Smith followed with prayer by Commissioner Shiver .

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hasslacher were present in the audience.

Mrs. Neel with the Calhoun County Library Board was also present.

Mrs. Alice Daniels with CAP met with the Board and made a report on the projects in the County. She also stated her appreciation for the Board's cooperation with the program.

Mr. Gene McClellan, Programs Coordinator, made a report to the Board on the projects going on in the County.

Mr. Ellis Melvin, County Road Superintendent, made a report to the Board on the road department.

Mr. Coy O'Bryan met with the Board concerning his driveway. Mr. O'Bryan stated that Mr. Melvin had refused to do any work on his drive to his house. The Board stated that after a resolution had been adopted at a previous meeting that no more work would be done on private property.

Mr. J. D. Brown met with the Board concerning the hunting accident that occurred December 31, 1980, resulting in the death of a 14 year old boy, and ask that the Board draft a resolution to help enforce safe hunting, especially where teenagers were involved. After some discussion, the Board stated that if it took a resolution they were in favor of it, but suggested that Mr. Brown contact Representative Leonard Hall to get the present laws revised or enforced.

Mr. Ed Leuchs with the Apalachee Regional Planning Council met with the Board concerning the Calhoun County Comprehensive Plan.

A motion was made by Commissioner Whitfield, seconded by Commissioner Cox and duly carried to adopt an ordinance to adopt a Calhoun County Comprehensive Plan.
