

BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSION
MINUTES OF SPECIAL SESSION
JULY 28, 1981

The Board of County Commission met at 7:00 P.M. in special session with the following members present, to-wit: Clayton Shiver, Chairman, Bobby Varnum, Donnell Whitfield, Jack Bowman and Monroe Cox. Willie D. Wise, Clerk, was present and acting.

Chairman Shiver called the meeting to order and introduced Dr. Wayne Smith with Florida Extension Services. The purpose of the meeting was for the farmers of Calhoun County to have some say-so on the hiring of a new Extension Service Director.

Dr. Smith went thru the procedures for hiring a director. Dr. Smith stated that four applicants had been approved for the job. The applicants were Mr. Brasher, Mrs. Linda Barber, Mr. Osborn and Mr. Fulmer. Dr. Smith stated that Logan Barbee would probably be on the list also.

Mr. Doug Price, along with some of the other farmers, voiced their opinion in support of Jerry Wyrick.

There were 26 people present for the meeting.

There being no further business, the business did then adjourn.
